The amounts and sources of distributions reported in this Notice are only estimates and are not being provided for tax reporting purposes. Such estimates are being provided only for information purposes as required under Section 19(a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and the rules promulgated thereunder. A return of capital does not necessarily reflect the Fund's investment performance and should not be confused with "yield" or "income." The actual amounts and sources of the amounts for tax reporting purposes will depend upon the Fund's investment experience during its entire fiscal year and may be subject to changes based on tax regulations. Shareholders should not use the information provided herein to prepare their tax returns. The Fund does not provide tax advice.

It is important to note that differences exist between the Fund's daily internal accounting records, the Fund's financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP, and recordkeeping practices required under income tax regulations. Therefore, the characterization of Fund distributions for federal income tax purposes may be different from GAAP characterization presented above. The determination of what portion of each year's distributions constitutes ordinary income, qualifying dividend income, short or long-term capital gains or return of capital is reported to shareholders on Form 1099-DIV, which is mailed every year in late January. Though not guaranteed, the Fund's distribution policy is to make quarterly distributions to shareholders.
